front of the hostlery and the fidd-dismounted to recover from their front of the hostlery and the fidd-less sang in the ballroom to time the firight, seated on the porch of the shack, in animated conversation and couples glirted and old couples gossiped, while the sullent and disapproving ocean pounded on the shore and announced to the shivering sands its intention of sweeping the whole frivolous place to destruction with the first winter storm.

where his the whole frivolous place by destruction with the first winter storms.

Mrs. Pemberton Jones had calculated the storms are stormed for the first winter storms.

Mrs. Pemberton Jones had calculated the stormed for the first winter the stormed for the first winter the stormed for margaret But as the season because of the season progressed the usually plaint, Margie developed an unexpected obstinacy quite equal to her sister's, and as the season because the stormed for the stormed f

Launching the Marriage Ship

By ZOE BECKLEY

Following a quarrel over an haunts of men? Did she think he apartment he has picked as a could earn enough to satisfy her leaving his new bride.

CONNIE, alone. Alarmed at his continued absence. Connie telephones to the police.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

Fred stalked out of the hotel

The stalked out of the

Fred stalked out of the hotel his heart one raging bruise.

Stunned and furious, aching and frightened convinced that the whole fair structure of life was complained to the was going—only to be moving as an offset to the frenzy within.

He was going to find himself unious. In that time anything

And is she didn't? Well—Connie reams!
The apariment he had found by meant more to him than the sell-

Gypsy Motor Company rushed forth from a New York hotel, harsh a nam

Short Breads

By Bertha E. Shapleigh Of Columbia University 1-2 cup butter.

1-2 cup brown sugar. 1 1-2 cup flour. Work butter and brown sugar together until creamy. Then work in flour gradually until

Put on a slightly floured board and work until smooth and easy to roll out. Roll to one-half-inch thickness and cut with a small cutter and place a nut meat in the center of each round.

Bake in a very moderate oven until slightly colored. This will take about one-half hour, Or this mixture may be rolled out to a quarter inch in thickness, cut in rounds and put together in pairs with jam between.

Bake as before in a moderate oven for 35 minutes. If a hole be cut in the top piece the jam will show through and make a prettier cake. (Cut this out and paste it in your cook book)

soothe mother's feelings. "How shocking you are!" re-hotel life; but Midway Beach appeared a good strategic position and, like a skillful general she occupied it. She did not, of course, explicitly state to her daughters the object of the expedition, but they suspected it.

The season at Midway Beach was a crowded and brilliant one. At night the great hotel blazed with incandescent bulbs the band blared from the pagoda-like bandstand in front of the hostlery and the fidd dismounted to recover from their needs by sticking in the mud et

Perhaps selfishness was too harsh a name for it. Foolish headstrong were more suitable almost any extreme. Perhaps at harsh a name for it. Foolish headstrong were more suitable words. Connie couldn't be really

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON,

TINGALING ON TRAIL OF TWINS

Mr. Tingaling asked Tillie Toad

ew away.

The Fairy Queen, being sure around these parts today but two that something was wrong, sent white rabbits."
all her helpers to hunt for the lost Mr. Tingalin

Twins.

Mr. Tingaling went first. He knew all the noots and corners and crooks and crannies of Whispering Forest and Bright Meadow-land and Old Orchard.

Kind. fat Tingaling went first. He "No, sir," replied Tillie. "The West Fork as the weather was rather cool for aquatic sports.

Personals Were two white rabbits. Must be relations of Cutie Cottontail's."

And everybody Mr. Tingaling Lewis County is visiting friends.

iand and Old Orchard.

Kind, fat Tingalins, who, by the way, was the fairy landlord who collected all the rents from the wood folk, looked everywhere with the wood folk with the wood folk with the wood folk, looked everywhere with the wood folk with the wood f the wood folk, looked everywhere.

He looked up and down and sideways and crossways and under things, and over things, in hollow a distance and have seen the Mr. and Mrs. Finley Oakes and Mrs. Hings and over things, in hollow a distance and have seen the Mr. and Mrs. Finley Oakes and down hollow stumps—oh. everywhere. And he asked them." logs, to bet she would have won, for that night Mrs. Pemberton Jones ex-en years younger.

But had Geraldine and Margaret ome through the frivolous and ferry furnace heart whole and Cupid's shaft had lighted. When the way, Harry and George are company free? Not so!

flancy furnace heart whole and fancy free? Not so!

On a little fishing shack four miles away along the shore of the bay, two young men were roughing it for the summer. They had a datboat, and they had an aged negro to cook for them. They sailed and fished and wore old clothes, smoked and loafed. It was a life good for the health, and the young men showed it.

"Most gentlemanly and attractive young fellows," said Jerry to Margie after their first meting with the hermit fisherwomen ."They haven't money, though, apparently—which Before they realized it Dan Cupid's shaft had lighted. When the sason was waning the young men way. Harry and George are com the season was waning the young men world will mother say?" asked Jerry as the sisters rode slowly back to the hotel one morning. As they came upon the great piazza they saw in a far corner their mother, sit ing in earnest conversation with a man whose figure seemed familiar to them. As they approached the couple they saw that the new comer was Dr. Thompson, the leading physician of their mid-west city, adores the doc tor and looks back upon the great campaign of Midway Beach as an unqualified success.

(Copyright by Mc Clure Newspaper Syndicate)

104

harmful!

after effects.

whenyou

CHURCH DEDICATED

Moundsville Pastor in Charge of Services Held at Church Sunday.

WORTHINGTON, Aug. 30— The new M. E. Church on Tever-baugh was dedicated Sunday and a large crowd was present to par-ticipate in the services. The Rev. James E. Scott, a former pastor, but now located at Moundsville, had charge of the services. had charge of the services and was assisted by the present pastor, the Rev. Oscar Nease of Wyatt. More than enough money was subscribed and paid in to meet the indebtedness on the building. The Flap-Doodle, the purple fairy, who had stolen the Fairy Queen's wand, had changed Nancy and vick into white rabbits before he lew away.

The Fairy Queen, helps such as the boy and gri?"

The Fairy Queen, helps such as the boy and gri?"

A group of men from the Billy Sunday Business Men's Club of Fairmont conducted the services in the Christian Church Sunday evening, a fair crowd being present.

"No," said Mr. Mud Turtle.
"Haven't seen any strangers"

Lewis County, is visiting friends here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley Oakes and other friends here for the past

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Weaver, Mrs. Ida Cunningham, Mrs. Gusta Collins and Mr. George C. Talbott attended the traction employes picnic at Norwood Park Tuesday. Miss Vivian Murray chief clerk by Train While Fighting in the postoffice, returned Monday from her vacation, which she spent with friends at Morgantown. from

Becoming Frocks for the

HE Woman who is no longer slender may freely pick and choose among The Fall Frocks and find many that are just right for herself. For straight-line models that have long side panels or back panels have a slenderizing effect and they are very smart in all the newest crepe silks or in navy cloth or twill. Goodly assortments of Fall Frocks in larger sizes are now in stock.

IEW TEVERBAUGH

Priday morning for Cadis, Onio, for a visit with relatives and friends in that section.

Mrg. Arile-Barbe and daughter Maxine and son Marcus are visiting Mrs. Barbe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Millan, near Downs

Okey E. Brammer has been appointed store manager for the Chiefton store of the Consolidaion Coal Co. at Midleton. Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Martin and son Ralph, who were located in Detroit, Mich., for several months, have returned to Worth-Mrs. Estella Poling of Weston has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Gurley for the past week. Miss Myrtle King of St. Marys Pleasants County, who spent the summer with friends here, has re-turned to her home.

M. H. Shumay of Portsmouth surplus will be applied to the purchase of new pews.

Church Services

The Rev. T. F. Haymond of Manayka preached in the Baptist Church at 8 p. m. on Sunday.

A group of men from the Billy Ohio, a member of the contracting firm of Rogers & Shumway, was a visitor here on Sunday.

drew a very small crowd on Sun day and but very few had the asked said the same thins.

"Well, I declare!" remarked
Tingaling fidally, fanning himself with his hat. "These must be important rabbits. If they are here this week.

Misses Lillie and Leota Tate of Salem are visiting Mr. and Mrs.
Jesse M. Wood here this week.

Mrs. George Pennell and son

Full Figure

Rheumatism at

when your recumentism is all gome. Let S. S. S. do it. It will build you up, too!

Celebrating Our FIRST BIRTHDAY

By Offering Our Entire Stock at

10% OFF

Embracing New Fall Dresses, Coats, Suits and Millinery

> September 1, 1921, we opened the doors of our Fairmont Store. Since then twelve busy months have passed—each and every one of them far exceeding our fondest expectations in volume of business and newfriends.

This gratifying business, we believe, was brought about by our concerted efforts to offer desirable, new merchandise as soon, or just a little sooner than elsewhere, and at prices that enable economical, yet critical women to dress up-to-the-minute without making exorbitant expenditures.

And it is the continuation of this policy that we expect will bring us even greater increase in both volume and friends for the coming twelve months.

To show our appreciation for your patronage during the past twelve months, we are offering our entire stock of new Fall Apparel at a straight ten per cent (10%) reduction from the already plainly marked prices.

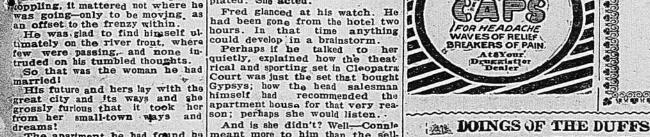

Sale Starts Friday, Sept. 1st

OSEN'C Fashion Shop FAIRMONT HOTEL BUILDING

Jefferson St.—Below Main

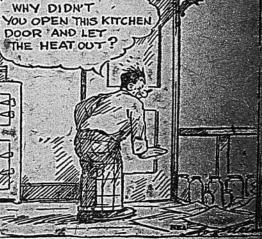

Home Was Still in the Same Place But-

The apartment he had found be sales to be ideal—near the Gypsy sales rooms in the midst of everything, in the same house with at many sales and her curtains, her garden and her flowers, would risk his ambitions to gratify her snippy little ideal.

Love in a cottage, torsooth! What he saw for them was love in the vortex of life. Love that meant growth. Love with a purpose to climb and do!

And is she didn't? Well—Connie meant more to him than the selling of a few cars. He turned back to the hotel, but was soon confused and obviously wasting time in finding the straightest course.

A passerby told him he was far from Broadwa yand Thirty-fourth street. Fred hailed a passing taxi. The thing seemed to crawl, He urg ed more speed. Still more.

"I gotta follow the traffic rules" snarled the driver. "We'd land with the police if I drove like you want me to."

"Cut the talk and hurry." Fred's nerves were pulling.

The hotel at last Food or the sale was soon confused and obviously wasting time in finding the straightest course.

A passerby told him he was far from Broadwa yand Thirty-fourth street. Fred hailed a passing taxi. The thing seemed to crawl, He urg ed more speed. Still more.

"I gotta follow the traffic rules" snarled the driver. "We'd land with the police if I drove like you want me to."

"Cut the talk and hurry." Fred's nerves were pulling. nerves were pulling. The hotel at last. Fred entered Selfish and foolishly selfish, h was. K Connie were the kind of girl who lived only for herself on the run.

The clerk looked at him curious

"Police headquarters are on you very well. He would suffer the shattering of his dream of a part-ner who loved her mate better wire, sir. Beter hurry."
"Lord—what has she done-" ha But Connie loved him he knew cried is stairs. senso enough to see his development and success lay among the cried inwardly, and leaped for the

(To Be Continued.) (Copyright, 1922.)